Molasses Decontrol Order

1229. SHRI B.K. HARIPRASAD: Will the Minister of CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that since the promulgation of Molasses Decontrol Order in 1993 there have been severe imbalance in many States, affecting the working of alcohol-based industries like cattle/poultry feed and potable alcohol;

(b) whether many States did not cooperate with the decontrol policy in letter and spirit for fear of losing excise revenue; and

(c) what are the recommendations of the Working Group of State Excise Ministers and whether the Centre is keen to implement the same and what implications these recommendations will have on the prohibition policy?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO): (a) and (b) The Molasses Control Order, 1961 and the Ethyl Alcohol (Price Control), Order, 1971 were rescinded on the 10th June, 1993, with a view to remove control on prices and distribution of Molasses and the prices of alcohol. However, some of the States continued controlling the prices and distribution of both the products under State Laws, on the plea of safeguarding their excise revenues. After decontrol, the prices of molasses and alcohol increased adversely affecting the manufacturing operations of the industry dependent on molasses like alcohol-based chemical industry and cattle and poultry feed manufacturing units.

(c) The main recommendations of the Working Group of State Excise Ministers on Molasses and Alcohol are for partial distribution control on molasses and alcohol and for policy consensus among different states to tackle the problems arising after decontrol The report of the Working Group was recently placed before the Excise Minister Conference. The views of the States on the recommendations of the Working Group are being examined alongwith their legal implications.
